Donates Quilt To Rescue Squad

Mrs. T. J. Marsh (on the right) of Oakville has donated a handmade quilt to the Appomattox County quilt to the Appomattox County Rescue Squad. Receiving the gift on behalf of the ACRS is Mrs. Nina Beasley, on the left.

Members of the local squad are offering chances on the quilt for 25¢ each, with a drawing planned for December 16th. The winner will be notified.

The lovely quilt made by Mrs. Marsh is on display at the Farmers National Bank for citizens to examine if they wish to do so. All members of the Appomattox County Rescue Squad have tickets for sale.

Farm Price Outlook

(This is the way prospects for Virginia farm prices looked to the Virginia Department of Agriculture and Commerce on Friday. The Department offers it to farmers with the warning that no one can predict prices and be right all the time.)

HOGS

Hog prices will continue above last year's level, but the spread will narrow toward the year's end.

No significant increase in pork supplies is expected until next spring, although a turnaround in hog production is underway. Slaughter during the first half of 1972 was 9 per cent below a year earlier, and summer slaughter was down 13 per cent. Fall slaughter is expected to be 4 to 6 percent less than a year earlier. Cold storage holdings of pork as of October 1 were 38 per cent below a year earlier, and 9 per cent below the same date in 1970.

Although demand for meats will continue strong, pork may encounter more competition from other meats than it has for the past several months as the year's end approaches.

Hog prices last Thursday in Peoria were: $27.75 - $28.75; Indianapolis, $28.00 - $28.75; Richmond, $27.00 - $27.75; and Southeast Virginia, Grades 1 to 3, $26.75 - $27.75.

CATTLE

Although consumer demand continues strong, increased numbers of cattle being marketed, especially the heavier weights, has created some price weakness which may continue through the remainder of the year.

The October 1 cattle on feed report in the 23 reporting states shows an increase of 10 per cent from a year earlier. The following breakdown by weight groups compares 1972 to 1971:

Less than 500 lbs.	up 17%
500 - 699 lbs.	up 10%
700 - 899 lbs.	up 3%
900 -1099 lbs.	up 19%
1100 lbs. and over	up 15%

Estimated fed cattle marketings in the 23 reporting states for the period October - December will be up 7 per cent from a year earlier. September slaughter was 1 per cent below last year's level, but October was up 5 per cent. Cold storage holdings are down 15 per cent from last year, but up 3 per cent from 2 years ago.

The slaughter cattle market last Thursday in Omaha closed with choice steers brining $33.00 - $33.75; good steers, $31.50 - $32.50; choice heifers, $32.00 - $33.00; and good heifers, $29.50 - $31.50. Cattle prices at Virginia auctions last week were as follows: good steers, $32.00 - $34.80; standard steers, $28.00 - $33.00; good heifers, $28.00 - $33.90; and standard heifers, $25.00 - $31.00.

Build a wall that looks just like brick. Without blood, sweat, tears or brick.

Bricklaying doesn't come easy to most people. But you can be an exception.

All you need is a little spare time and enough GAF Hearth-Glow Brick and mortar to cover a wall.

In a few hours you can put up a wall so real looking, any brick-layer would be proud to call it his own.

That's because our make believe brick is all mineral and not plastic like some others.

That means it not only looks like brick, it feels like real brick.

What's more, it's incredibly easy to use. Just apply the mortar to the wall and press the bricks into place. Once it's dry, even the mortar looks authentic.

So look for GAF Hearth-Glow Brick Interior Wall Covering at any of the fine stores listed below. And leave the blood, sweat and an occasional tear to the other bricklayers.
